Interview with Sadhvi Ritambara Ji of Vatsalyagram

Pujya Didi Maa, Sadhvi Ritambharaji is a powerful personality and a spellbinding orator. Her discourses are mesmerizing. She is the founder of Vatsalya Gram - a women's and children's village. Sadhvi Ritambhara has been the propagator of women's rights, involved in bringing several environmental and social changes in India ranging from advocating for a cleaner environment to maintaining and cleaning temples. In 1993 Sadhvi Rithambara established Paramshaktipeth trust and in 2002 established an ashram near Vrindavan and Mathura to make women confident and self-reliant. She runs ashrams for unwanted infants, ladies and widows in Indore, Delhi and Himachal Pradesh. She is also the founding chairperson of Durga Vahini.
